STATUS REPORT

U.S. Probation Officer Action:

On January 11, 2010 Your Honor sentenced Marcia Sladich to seventy months imprisonment; thirty-six months supervised release, $3,151,830 in restitution and a $100 special assessment for involvement in mail fraud. While on Supervised Release, Sladich was ordered to comply with special conditions of: prohibition from incurring new credit charges or opening additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer and financial disclosure. Sladich was released from federal custody on September 10, 2013 and began the period of supervised release.

Ms. Sladich currently resides in Clifton, New Jersey and is self-employed. We have completed a financial investigation and it seems as though Ms. Sladich has attempted to make payments toward her court imposed financial obligations to the best of her ability. To date, she has paid $3,000 towards her restitution. The offender has been informed that if her probation term is permitted to expire as scheduled, she is to continue to make payments and that the United States Attorney's Office, Financial Litigation Unit, will pursue collection of this obligation.

Recommendation: It is respectfully requested that Your Honor take no further action and allow Ms. Sladich's term of supervision to expire as scheduled on September 9, 2016.

Respectfully submitted,

Erika Arnone
